Continuing Education & Professional Training

Thousands of people come to Omega each year to further their professional development by taking programs that offer continuing education credits. Many companies offer their employees assistance in advanced training; check with your employer. Continuing education credits are awarded in the following categories.. Programs are certified for continuing education credits by IAHB, a division by IAHB, Inc., and not by Omega Institute for Holistic Studies, Inc.

CONTINUING EDUCATION GUIDELINES

Participation. To qualify for CE/CME credit, you must be registered in the workshop, have paid all fees in full, attended all sessions, and fully and actively participated in the program. You must pre-register for CE/CME credit; please be sure to include all related fees when you register.

Procedures. To receive accreditation, you must sign in each day at your workshop. At the end of your workshop, you must drop off your signed disclaimer form, CE request form, workshop evaluation form, needs assessment form, and/or disclosure form (if applicable) at the main office. Failure to submit all fees and paperwork at the conclusion of the workshop will disqualify you from receiving CE/CME credit.

Certificate of Attendance. There is a $30 fee for a Certificate of Attendance for a workshop that you have attended, unless stated otherwise in the course description. In six to eight weeks, you will receive a Certificate of Attendance. There will be an additional $30 fee for certificates that need to be reissued. This is not a Continuing Education Certificate.

SPONSORS

The Institute for the Advancement of Human Behavior (IAHB) and Omega Institute have entered into a joint sponsorship agreement to provide quality educational activities that are available for professional continuing education credit.

IAHB is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit educational organization located in Portola Valley, California. Its mission is to provide innovative, top quality continuing education and continuing medical education activities for professionals. The Institute's programs encompass a comprehensive and multidisciplinary array of educational activities in the form of workshops, conferences, multi-media home-study materials, and customized training programs. Except as otherwise noted, IAHB has been approved as a provider of continuing education and continuing medical education by the organizations listed.
