OMEGA TO HOST NEW YORK CITY EVENT FEATURING DEEPAK CHOPRA, DEBBIE FORD & MARIANNE WILLIAMSON

Three New York Times Best-selling Authors Launch New Book:
The Shadow Effect: Illuminating the Hidden Power of Your True Self

RHINEBECK, NY – Omega Institute is pleased to announce it will host an evening event with Deepak Chopra, Debbie Ford, and Marianne Williamson as they celebrate the launch of their new book, The Shadow Effect: Illuminating the Hidden Power of Your True Self. The New York City event will be held at the Manhattan Center, May 13, 2010, at 8:00 p.m. This is a rare opportunity to spend an evening with three of the most internationally acclaimed teachers and authors of our time. The evening includes conversation, inspiration, clips from The Shadow Effect movie, and a book signing with all three authors.

“Deepak, Debbie, and Marianne have been part of Omega’s esteemed faculty for many years. We are thrilled to support their latest endeavor and to give people this unique opportunity to experience them together,” said Carla Goldstein, director of external affairs and the Women’s Institute at Omega. “The Shadow Effect helps us to better understand and make peace with our own human psyche, and in turn improve our relationships with others, and the world.”

Their new book, The Shadow Effect: Illuminating the Hidden Power of Your True Self, brings together their shared knowledge of one of the biggest obstacles to happiness: our shadow, the dark side of ourselves that we deny but that still impacts how we live. The book is a practical guide to help us learn to embrace our shadow, release past grievances, and achieve our dreams and happiness. The book is available at Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Borders, and Powell’s Books.

The event is being cosponsored by Harper One and Liiv.com. Tickets are general admission and the event begins at 8:00 p.m. in The Grand at the Manhattan Center in New York City (311 West 34th Street, between 8th and 9th Avenues). Books and DVDs will be available for purchase.
