Omega Institute – Rhinebeck Campus
Ecological Literacy Immersion Program (ELIP) Application • July 2 – 28, 2017
Program Cost: $2875 • Register early for tuition discounts
(See details on program website for early registration deadlines)

Dear Applicant,

The Omega Center for Sustainable Living (OCSL) is excited to announce the 2017 Ecological Literacy Immersion program (ELIP). Through lectures, discussion, hands-on projects, field trips, community experience and personal reflection, we study ecology from a social, economic, personal and spiritual perspective. What we learn in the process is an approach that can be applied to creative problem solving anywhere. For more information and faculty bios, please visit www.eOmega.org/ELIP.

Your application will include:

- A completed Application Form
- Your Personal Statement
- A Recommendation Form (suggested for any applicant, but this will not hold us up from processing your application if you do not have one. This form is required for all scholarship applicants)

Please send application materials to: Lauraw@eomega.org with subject: ELIP Application - Name of Applicant

Omega Institute – Eco-Literacy Immersion Program
150 Lake Drive
Rhinebeck, NY 12572

Eligibility: All levels of experience and prior study are welcome. You must be 18 or older to apply. We are looking for candidates with a high level of maturity and a sincere desire to be part of creating the future they envision for society and our planet. Applicants should think about both what they hope to gain from the program, and how they can help to enhance the experience of others within their learning community.

NOTE: Submitting an application does not register you for the course. When an application has been received, we will send you a confirmation email. Applications will be reviewed upon receipt.

Once you have been notified of acceptance, you will have two weeks to call and confirm your intention to attend the course and pay a $500 deposit to hold a space in the program. Payment in full must be received no later than Friday, June 9, 2017. Applicants who are accepted and register early are eligible for tuition discounts.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please call Laura: 845-266-4444 ext. 377 or email Lauraw@eomega.org

Sincerely,

Laura Weiland & The OCSL Team
