To help us have the most fun at camp, there are a few things that will be helpful for us to know ahead of time.

Will your camper be bringing his or her own instrument? We encourage campers to bring their own instruments if they wish. Please let us know what type of instrument (i.e. electric guitar, acoustic guitar, drum kit; model names not needed). Please plan to bring any related accessories as well, such as straps and guitar stands.

If you're not bringing your own instrument, is there a specific instrument your camper plays, or would like to play? We can provide a limited number of instruments. Please note we may not be able to accommodate all requests; we'll do our best, but in the event we can't, please know that the every camper will get to play one or more instruments and have ample opportunities to create and explore musically during the week.

Our camp week is designed to accommodate players at all levels, so no need to share information about your camper's previous musical experience; we will get to know each player's abilities on the ground and customize the experience to allow all players to advance their skills and explore new possibilities in their music.

Awakening the Best in the Human Spirit

What helps your camper engage and create and thrive? Feel free to share anything that will help us get to know your camper in advance and plan our activities. This can be a learning style (i.e. learns best with visuals), or social (i.e. super shy), or anything else that you think might help us support them in their experience. Again, we will get to know the campers on the ground, so providing input in advance is absolutely optional.

Campers should bring a blank notebook and pen that they can use for songwriting, performance notes, etc. The notebook should be at least 8x8, preferably unlined and can open flat on a surface, and in a style that the camper likes. There will be notebooks for sale at the Omega shop as well.
